Fine

It was a sunny day. I left my home early with my fishing pole. I went to the bank of the river and sat down to fish. As time passed, there was no fish on my hook. I waited and waited, but there was no luck. The sun was about to set. My basket was still empty. But I should go back home. I was afraid that my mother would laugh at me. And then I had an idea. I bought two big fish and brought them home. I thought my mother would be happy to see them.
