Halloween is a traditional holiday on October 31st. Children love to dress up in different costumes and go from house to house in their neighbourhood to follow the old tradition of "Trick or treat". Then they can get a lot of candy. Halloween is usually celebrated by both adults and kids. Some families celebrate it by having costume parties and playing special games. Many people also make lanterns with pumpkins. They draw faces on pumpkins, carve(雕刻) them and put candles inside. Then they hang them outside their houses. Schools usually prefer to celebrate Halloween by having children dress up as people in storybooks. In this way, the holiday becomes both fun and educational.
